Back-2-Back! Baseball Wins State in Wild Walk-Off!

Coach Pishkur and the 59ers baseball team captured the 3A State Championship over Edgewood Tuesday night. It is their second consecutive state title and their 7th title since 2005. This capped a season where the 59ers went 36-1 and Coach Pishkur won his 1000th game and also became the winningest coach in Indiana High School Baseball history by surpassing his late mentor Ken Schreiber of LaPorte. Congratulations to our players and coaches and best of luck to our graduates!

Appeals on Wheels

On Tuesday, February 5, Andean High School was proud to host the Indiana Court of Appeals for oral argument and a special question and answer session with our student body.

This rare opportunity allowed students to observe an actual appeal hearing and ask questions of the judges after. We are grateful for the efforts of those who worked hard to secure this opportunity, namely Mr. George Galanos..

AMERICAN NEWS AND POLITICS

CHANGE MANAGEMENT

AS HE SHAKES HER HAND, House Minority Leader Kevin McCarthy passes the gavel and control of the House of Representatives to Congresswoman Nancy Pelosi. Picking up 40 seats, Democrats won control of the House after the November election. Pelosi was elected Speaker of the House on Jan. 3, 2019. INCOMING MEMBERS OF THE HOUSE pose for a photo on the steps of the Capitol Building on Nov. 14, 2018. The midterms resulted in the most diverse Congress in U.S. history, including the election of 117 women, the two youngest women (age 29), the first two Native American women and the first two Muslim women. The new Congress was sworn in on Jan. 3, 2019, during the government shutdown.

IN THE CAPITOL ROTUNDA, visitors look on as President George H.W. Bush lies in state. Bush passed away on Nov. 30, 2018, less than eight months after his wife, former first lady Barbara Bush. A service was held at Washington National Cathedral with the eulogy given by 43rd President George W. Bush. STANDING IN RESPECT, President Donald Trump and First Lady Melania Trump, former President Barack Obama and First Lady Michelle Obama, former President Bill Clinton and Secretary of State Hillary Clinton, and former President Jimmy Carter and First Lady Rosalynn Carter honor the memory of former President George H.W. Bush. AT A PRESS CONFERENCE, New York City Mayor Bill de Blasio talks about the bomb threat at CNN's headquarters. A man was arrested in South Florida on Oct. 26, 2018, in conjunction with at least 13 explosive packages sent to critics of President Trump. The president condemned the attacks. FORMER SUPREME JUSTICE ANTHONY KENNEDY looks on at the swearing in of his replacement, Brett Kavanaugh. At 81 years old, Kennedy announced his retirement on June 27, 2018. A long confirmation hearing followed. AS NAVAL ACADEMY MEMBERS SALUTE, a horse-drawn caisson carries Senator John McCain's casket to the U.S. Naval Academy Cemetery in Annapolis, Maryland. The 81-year-old war hero passed away on Aug. 25, 2018. Though he was diagnosed with a brain tumor a year earlier, he showed up to work at the Capitol Building as long as his health allowed.

ON DEC. 22, 2018, a partial shutdown of the government began when the U.S. Congress and President could not agree on decisions needed to pass the 2019 budget. At the center of controversy was border wall funding. In the following 35 days, around 800,000 federal employees worked without pay or were put on leave. This led to massive airport delays and grounded planes as air traffic controllers and TSA were in short supply. FOOD BANKS opened across the country for federal employees going without paychecks. The government reopened on Jan. 25, 2019.

CHRISTMAS VISIT

AT THE AL ASAD AIR BASE in Iraq, President Donald Trump and first lady Melania Trump visit with service members assigned to the Combined Joint Task Force, Operation Inherent Resolve. The visit, on Dec. 26, 2018, was a surprise and was unannounced to the troops or media.

JOURNALISTS MAKE HEADLINES

TIME MAGAZINE announced Dec. 11, 2018, the Person of the Year as "The Guardians," journalists who have been targeted for their work. The four covers include (1) Jamal Khashoggi — the Washington Post contributor who was killed on the job in Istanbul, (2) the wives of Wa Lone and Kyaw Soe Oo — Reuters journalists who were arrested on the job in Myanmar, (3) journalists from the Capital Gazette in Annapolis, Maryland, where a gunman opened fire earlier in the year, and (4) Maria Ressa — chief executive of Rappler, a Philippine newspaper, who has been accused of tax evasion to keep her quiet.

WORRY ABOUT WARMING

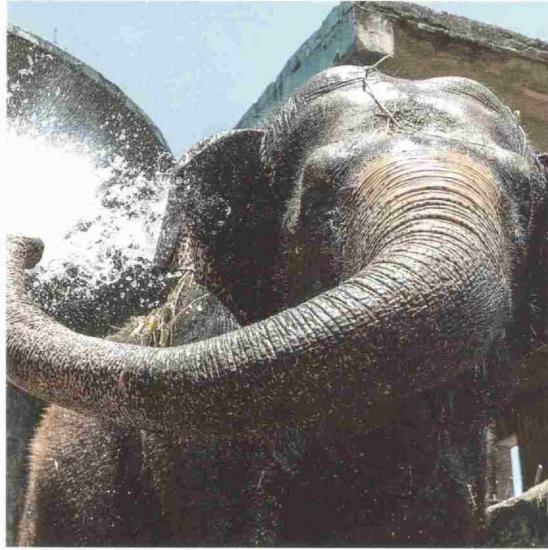

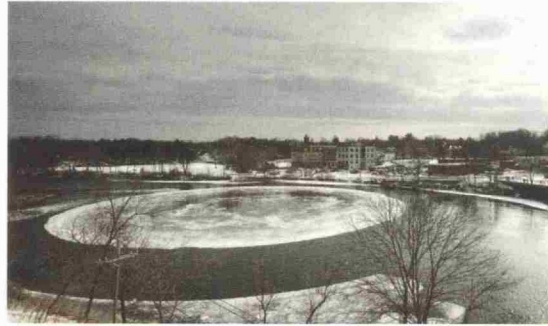

AT A CLIMATE CHANGE PRESS CONFERENCE, Secretary-General of the World Meteorological Organization Petteri Taalas said the planet will warm 2.7 degrees by 2040, causing geological, environmental and economic crises.

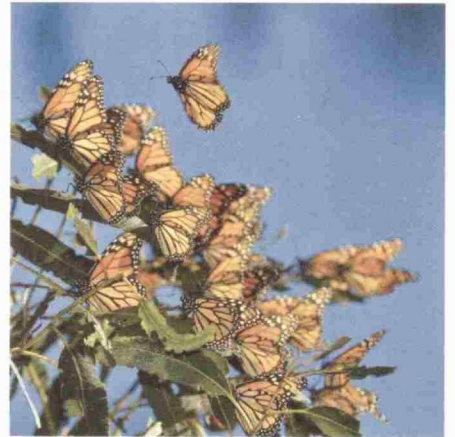

HURRICANES HIT HOME

MEXICO BEACH, FLORIDA IS RUBBLE after category four Hurricane Michael tore through the Panhandle. One of the strongest storms to hit the continental U.S., Michael was originally forecast as a tropical storm. After quickly increasing in power, the storm forced fast evacuations. SEARCH AND RESCUE TEAM MEMBERS float down a street in Spring Lake, North Carolina. Hurricane Florence made landfall near Wilmington on Sept. 12, 2018. The storm battered the Carolinas, dumping rain across both states before traveling inland.

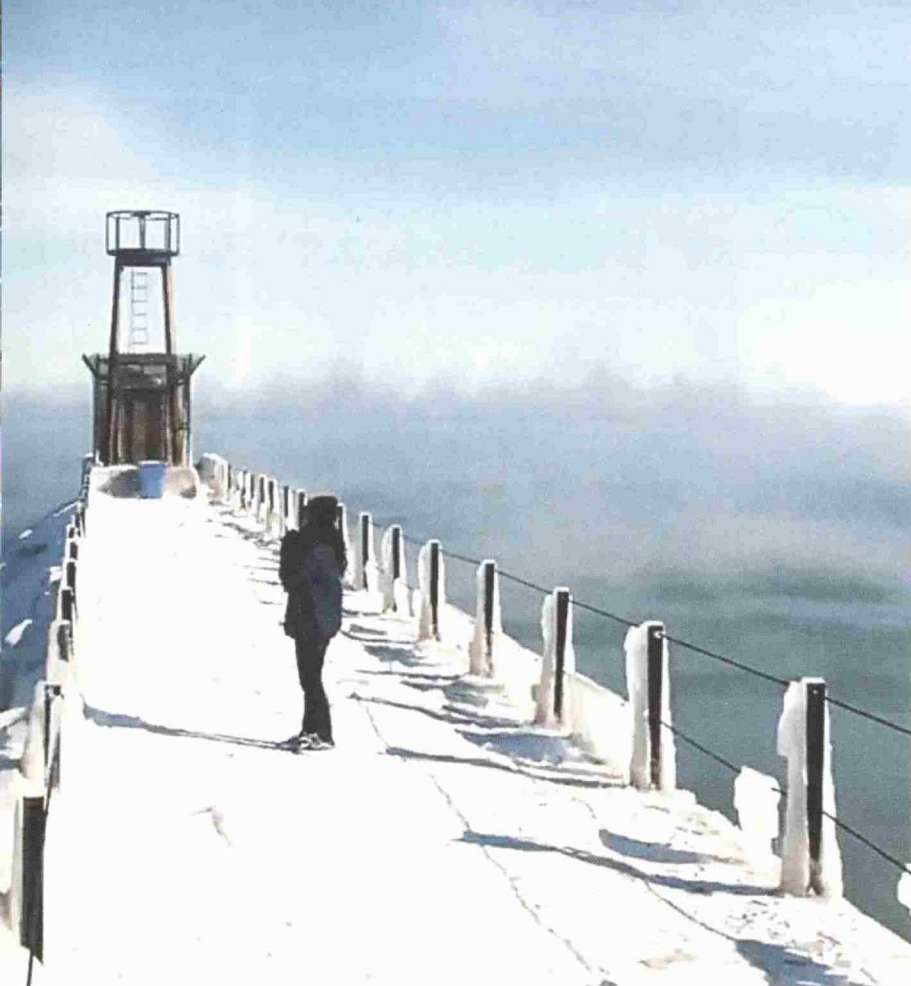

A 3,200-FOOT-WIDE CIRCLE OF ICE spins on the Presumpscot river in Westbrook, Maine. The mysterious disk formed in January and attracted tourists, including a man from New Jersey who tried to cut it with a chain saw. KOALA THE ELEPHANT cools off at the Zoo Garden in Rio de Janeiro, Brazil. The animals receive daily showers to fight off seasonal high temperatures around 104 degrees. 2018 was marked the fourth warmest year on record. IN A EUCALYPTUS TREE, a winter colony of Monarch butterflies gathers in Pismo Beach State Park, California. Harsh weather and severe droughts have depleted the milkweed plants the Monarchs rely on for breeding and migration. In a year's time, the population of Monarchs in California dropped by 86 percent from 2017.

ERUPTION DESTRUCTION

HAWAII'S KILAUEA VOLCANO began erupting in May and continued for months, forcing evacuations to temporary housing and destroying at least 700 homes. The eruption was declared over in December.

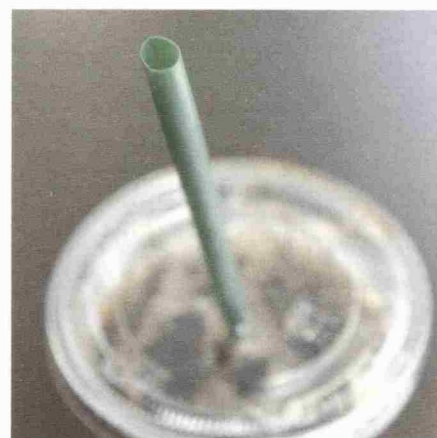

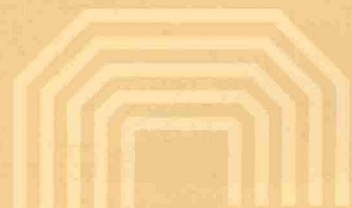

A BRAVE MIDWESTERNER stands on a pier on Lake Michigan during the polar vortex. The air, which traveled south from the North Pole, hit the Midwest on Jan. 30, 2019, and led to temperatures as low as 40 degrees below zero and wind chills as low as 60 degrees below zero.

AS FIRES BURN ON THE TRACKS, a train pulls into Western Avenue station in Chicago. Officials set fires along the tracks to keep them from freezing and causing delays in traffic. Schools, universities and businesses across the Midwest closed as temperatures dropped well below the temperature in Antarctica.

CLIMATE AND CATASTROPHE

SCIENCE AND WEATHER

GOING STRAWLESS

SUMMER OF 2018 saw major companies announcing commitments to sustainability. As Starbucks vowed to phase out the iconic green straws in favor of a recyclable strawless-lid, McDonald's and Coca-Cola announced similar plans to reduce waste in the coming years.

FIGHTING FIRES

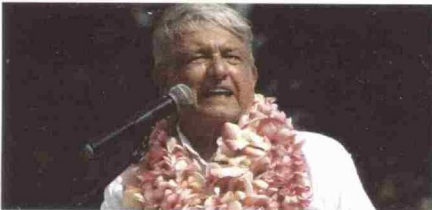

WITH A FIRE HOSE READY, a firefighter continues working near Clearlake Oaks, California. On Aug. 7, 2018, the Mendocino Complex Fire, which burned nearly 459,000 acres northwest of Sacramento, became the largest recorded California fire.

U.S. FOREST SERVICE FIREFIGHTERS head up a hill in Paradise, California. On Nov. 25, 2018, firefighters contained the Camp Fire after it destroyed more than 18,000 structures. The deadliest fire in California history, it destroyed 90 percent of homes in Paradise and forced thousands to evacuate.

GLOBAL TOPICS AND CONCERNS

CHANGING OF THE GUARD

ANNEGRET KRAMP-KARRENBauer

ACCEPTS her new position as leader of Germany's Christian Democratic party as Angela Merkel stands by. Merkel announced Oct. 29, 2018, she would not run for Chancellor again, positioning Kramp-Karrenbauer to take power in 2021.

ON A TOUR TO THANK SUPPORTERS,

Mexico's President Andrés Manuel López Obrador speaks in Itepec, Oaxaca on Sept. 19, 2018. President Obrador was elected July 1, 2018.

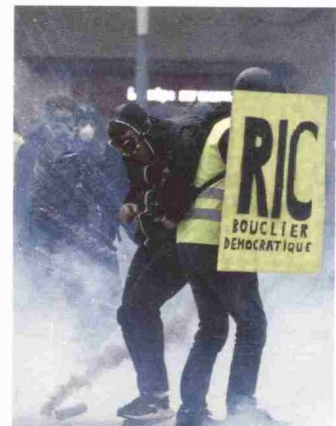

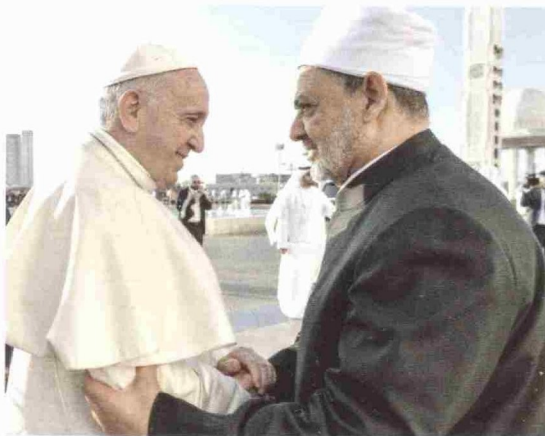

IN THE PRESENCE OF KING FELIPE VI,

Pedro Sánchez is sworn in as Prime Minister of Spain on June 2, 2018. Former Prime Minister Mariano Rajoy was forced out of office following a financial scandal.

RELIEF SETS IN as Greek foreign minister Nikos Kotzias and his Macedonian counterpart Nikola Dimitrov end the long-time dispute over Macedonia's name. Greek Prime Minister Alexis Tsipras and Macedonian Prime Minister Zoran Zaev attended the signing to change the name to North Macedonia in Prespes, Greece, on June 17, 2018.

POPE FRANCIS GREETES Grand Imam of al-Azhar, Ahmed el-Tayeb, at his meeting with members of the Muslim Council of Elders in Abu Dhabi, United Arab Emirates. His arrival on Feb. 3, 2019, marked the first papal visit to the Arabian Peninsula. The trip was an effort to promote interfaith dialogue.

WITH A THUMBS UP, Juan Guaidó greets the crowd at a rally in Caracas, Venezuela. Protests began on Jan. 10, 2019, when President Nicolás Maduro took the oath for his second term. He was considered illegitimate by many, as his opponents were not allowed to run. On Jan. 23, Guaidó, the newly elected opposition leader, declared himself interim president. 'YELLOW VEST' PROTESTORS react to tear gas in Nantes, France. President Emmanuel Macron announced a green tax on fuel to go into effect on Jan. 1, 2019, as part of his environmental policy. Rural citizens who commute long distances began protests, which spread to cities as those upset with the low minimum wage and lacking social welfare programs joined in. The government dropped the tax to appease protesters.

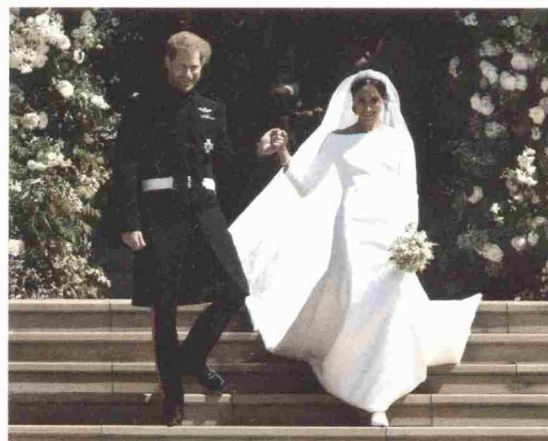

MISSION POSSIBLE

ON JUNE 23, 2018, 12 Thai soccer players and their 25-year-old coach did not return home after practice in the Mae Sai district. The boys were exploring the Tham Luang cave system when flash floods began. A search began involving Thai Navy Seals and military from around the world, as well as professional cave divers. After divers found the boys, they spent five days delivering oxygen and supplies, then with a system of 100 divers, the first four boys made it to safety on July 8. Two missions later, divers finished the rescue of all 13 people on July 10.

NEW YORK CITY PROTESTORS line up thousands of shoes to symbolize immigrants sent to detention centers. In May 2018, the Trump administration announced a "zero tolerance" policy for undocumented border crossings, leading to a spike in imprisonment and family separation. The United Nations announced this policy violated international human rights law on June 5.

ROYAL FAMILY EXPANDS

PRINCE HARRY LEADS his American bride, Meghan Markle down the steps of St. George's Chapel. The couple married on May 19, 2018, making them the Duke and Duchess of Sussex. On October 15, 2018, the couple announced they were expecting a child. THE DUKE AND DUCHESS of Cambridge take their Christmas card photo with their children Charlotte, George and Louis. The family grew by one more adorable member April 23, 2018.

BRITISH BREAK-UP

OUTSIDE WESTMINSTER PALACE, an anti-Brexit protestor waves the European Union flag. On Nov. 25, 2018, the EU approved Prime Minister Theresa May's plan to withdraw, which left the country in turmoil over next steps. No-confidence votes in December and January, as well as multiple parliamentary defeats in December, led to the largest Parliamentary defeat in the U.K.'s democratic history — 432 votes to 202 on May's Brexit plan.

PUTTING ON A GOOD FACE

MARK ZUCKERBERG PREPARES for his hearing at European Union headquarters in Brussels, Belgium. The Facebook chief executive faced questions from the EU during his apology tour where he explained how the company would respond after a security scandal which allowed a British consulting firm to obtain the information of millions of Facebook users.

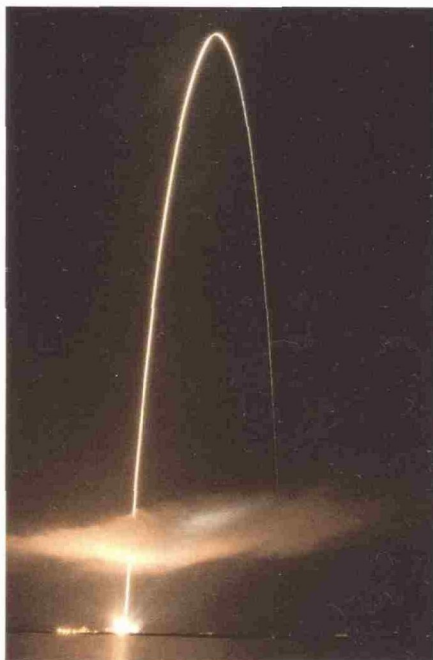

ANYTHING BUT HAPPY

DESPITE OVERTAKING MICROSOFT to become the world's most valuable public company, Amazon pulled out of plans to build a headquarters in Queens, New York City. Reacting to increasing backlash from lawmakers, activists and union leaders, the decision was announced on Feb. 14, 2019. Plans to build a headquarters in Arlington, Virginia, continue.

THE FINAL FRONTIER

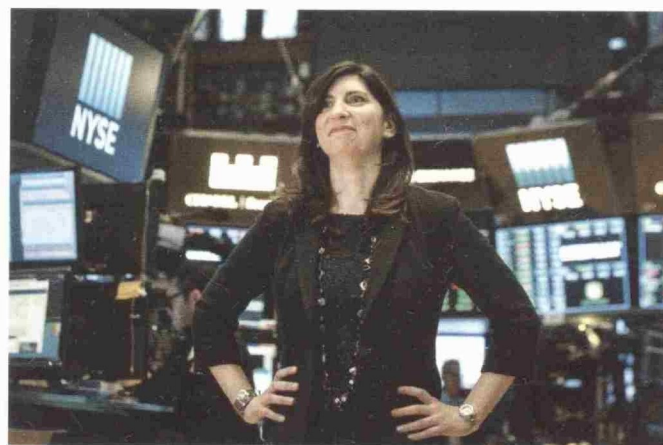

AT BLAST OFF, the Parker Solar Probe heads to space. NASA launched the spacecraft on Aug. 12, 2018. On Jan. 29, 2019, it completed the first of 24 planned trips around the sun. THE UNITED LAUNCH ALLIANCE catches a long-exposure view of the Parker Solar Probe taking off over Cape Canaveral Air Force Station in Florida. On Nov. 5, 2018, it moved within 15 million miles of the sun, the closest flyby ever.

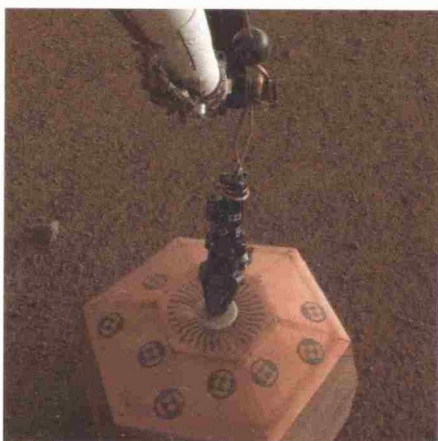

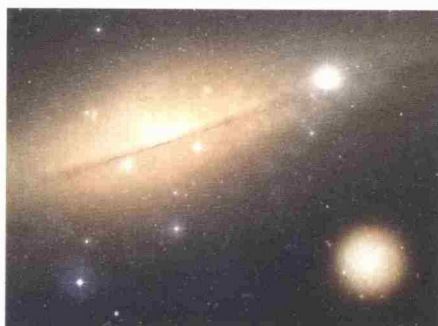

TALKING TECHNOLOGY

INNOVATION AND ADVANCES

RUNNING THE FLOOR

ON THE FLOOR OF THE NEW YORK STOCK EXCHANGE, Stacey Cunningham takes in her new role. Cunningham became the first female president of the 226-year-old NYSE on May 22, 2018. When she interned in 1994, she was one of two dozen women among thousands of men working there.

ON JULY 26, 2018, astronomers working in Chile announced they observed gravitational redshift — a star quickly approaching the black hole at the center of the Milky Way. Using The Very Large Telescope (yes, that's really its name), these astronomers proved predictions made by Albert Einstein and opened the way for future black hole physics. NASA'S INSIGHT ROVER is placed on Mars. In a big year for Mars and a tale of three rovers, the Curiosity rover found organic matter, including methane, on June 7, 2018, while InSight landed on Nov. 26, following a 7-month journey. And, 14 years after landing on the red planet, NASA announced the end of the Opportunity rover on Feb. 13, 2019.

UP, UP AND A WHALE

AIRBUS MADE THE FIRST FLIGHT of their new Beluga XL plane on July 19, 2018. Painted to look like a beluga whale, the plane was crafted to carry large cargo. ENGINEERS GATHER on July 4, 2018, to celebrate the mass production of "Apolong," the self-driving bus created by Chinese company, Baidu.

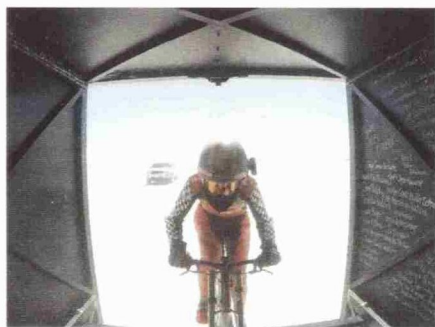

ON TOP OF THE WORLD

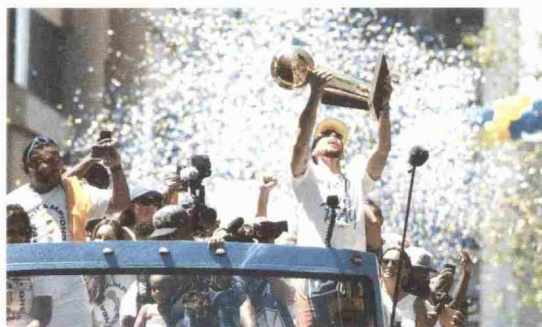

AFTER A CONTENTIOUS MATCH involving questionable calls from the chair umpire and point and game deductions, Serena Williams hugs Naomi Osaka at the U.S. Open. The 20-year-old was the first Japanese tennis player to ever win a grand slam.

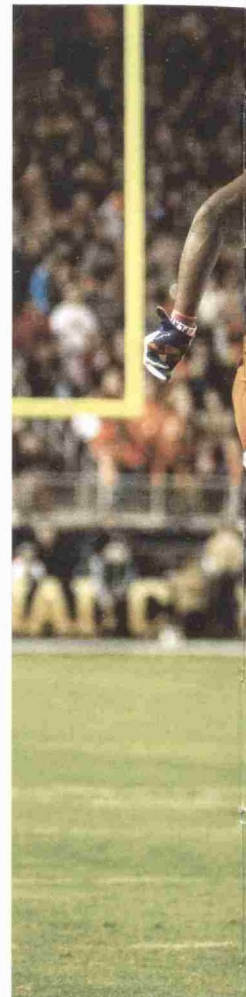

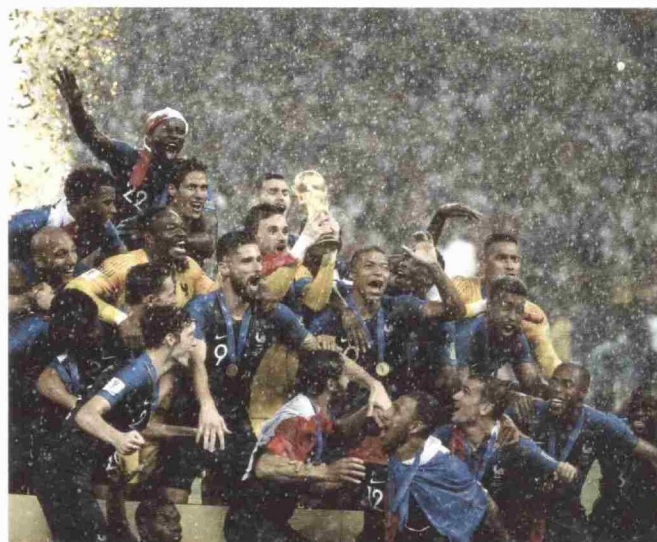

JUSTIFY LEADS THE FIELD at Churchill Downs on May 5, 2018. Jockey Mike Smith raced Justify to victory at the 144th Kentucky Derby and on June 9, the pair won the Belmont Stakes to become the 13th Triple Crown winners.

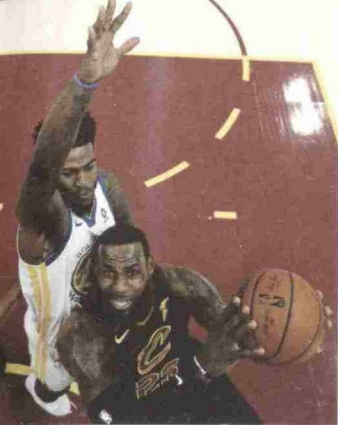

SHIELDED FROM THE WIND by a pace car, Denise Mueller-Korenek breaks the paced bicycle land speed record. On a custom-made bike, 45-year-old Mueller-Korenek traveled at 183.932 mph on Sept. 16, 2018, in Bonneville Salt Flats, Utah.

DEFYING GRAVITY, wide receiver Justyn Ross reaches to make a one-handed catch in the National Championship game. Clemson University upset the University of Alabama in a 44-16 win on Jan. 7, 2019. The victory at Levi Stadium in Santa Clara, California, gave the Tigers its second championship in three years. AMID A DOWNPOUR OF RAIN, the French national team gathers to lift the World Cup trophy. The 4-2 victory over Croatia led Didier Deschamps to his first victory as a coach, though he also played for the French team that won the country's first World Cup in 1998. Deschamps is only the third player with this distinction. THROUGH A CONFETTI-FILLED FIELD, New England Patriots' middle linebacker, Kyle Van Noy celebrates his team's Super Bowl victory. The low-scoring game, held at the Mercedes-Benz Stadium in Atlanta on Feb. 3, 2019, led the Patriots to its sixth franchise win, tying with the Pittsburgh Steelers for most titles. GOALTENDER BRADEN HOLTBY makes a save in the fifth game of the Stanley Cup on June 7, 2018. The Washington Capitals defeated the first-year Las Vegas Golden Knights 3-2 in the fifth game of the series. This was the Capitals' first title.

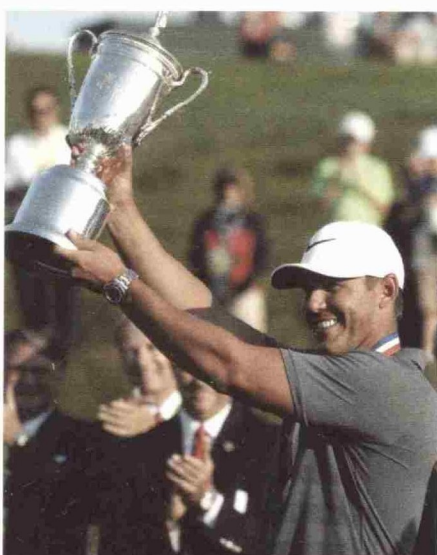

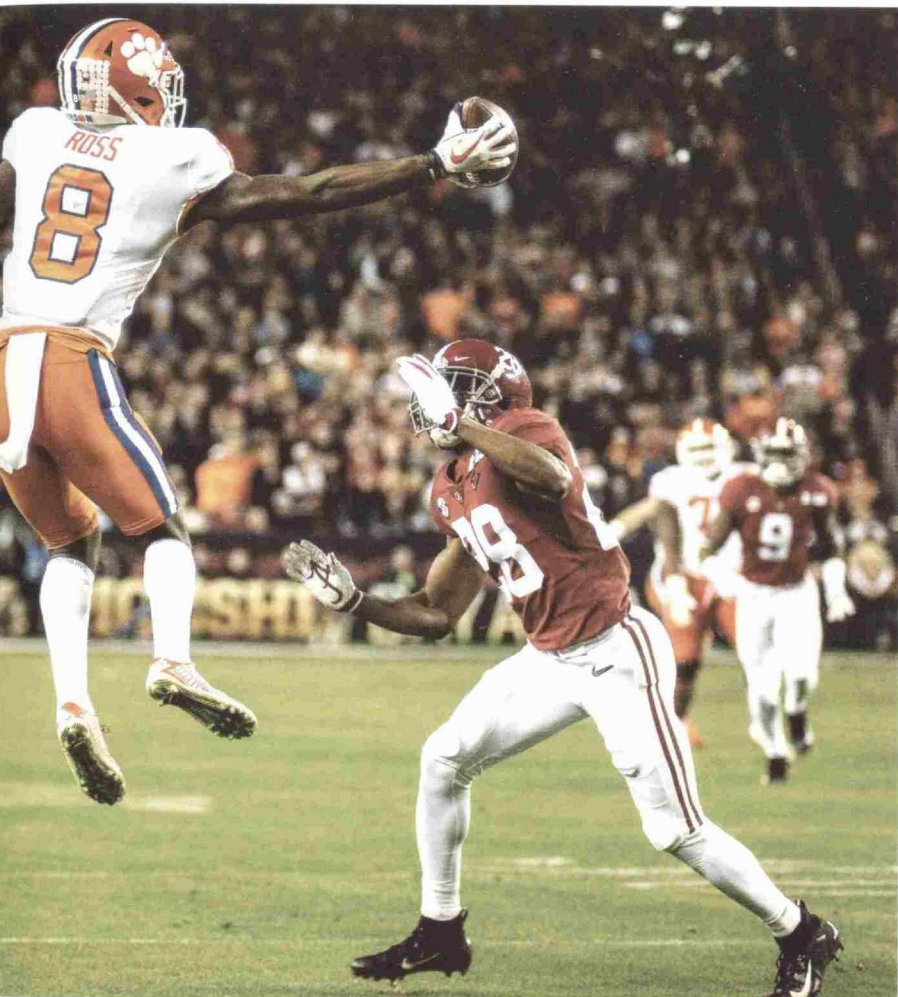

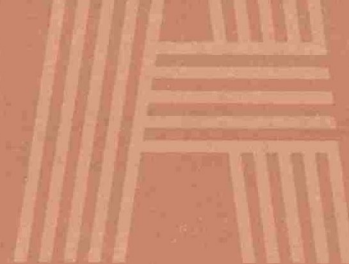

KINGS OF THE COURT

IN A PARADE THROUGH OAKLAND, California, Steph Curry lifts the Larry O'Brien Championship trophy. Curry helped lead the Golden State Warriors to a third title in four years. The 4-0 sweep against the Cavaliers ended in Cleveland, Ohio on June 8, 2018.

LEBRON JAMES REACHES around Warrior defenders in the championship game. In game three, James passed Michael Jordan's record for most 30-point games in NBA playoff history. He signed a 4-year deal and moved to the Lakers following the season.

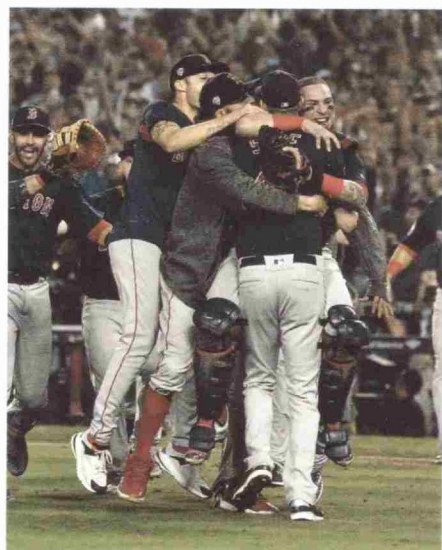

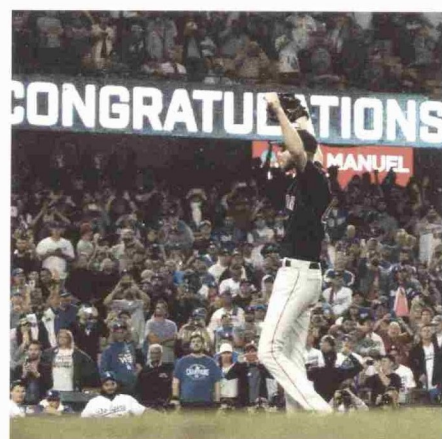

TROPHY HELD HIGH, American Brooks Koepka celebrates his U.S. Open victory at the Shinnecock Hills Golf Club in Southampton, New York. Koepka's victory on June 17, 2018, made him the first to win the Open twice in a row since Curtis Strange in 1989.

ATHLETIC ACTION

PLAYMAKERS AND RECORD-BREAKERS

CHAMPS, AGAIN FINALLY

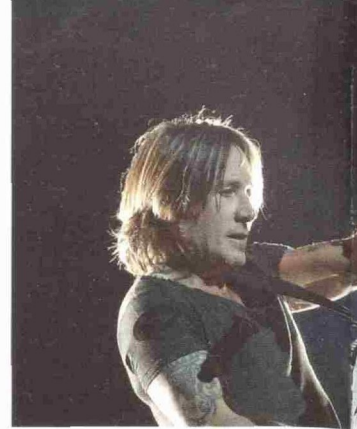

THE BOSTON RED SOX won the World Series on Oct. 28 with a 5-1 victory over the Los Angeles Dodgers. With the ninth win in franchise history, the Red Sox shut down the Dodgers in the fifth game of the series. Their only loss was the 18-inning game three, which lasted more than seven hours, making it the longest World Series game in history.

MUSIC MAKERS

BIG NAMES AND BIG HEARTS

COUNTRY CROWNED

CELEBRATING HIS TITLE as performer of the year, Keith Urban takes the stage at the Country Music Awards on Nov. 14, 2018. Though he won the award for a second time, Urban was brought to tears when his name was called. WITH HER AWARDS, Kacey Musgraves poses after the Grammy Awards. Musgraves wowed the crowd with a performance of "Rainbow" and an appearance in a tribute to Motown, then brought home four awards, including album of the year for "Golden Hour."

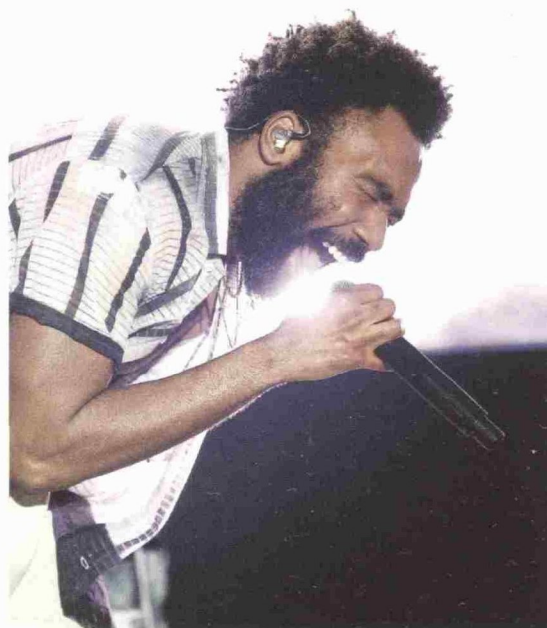

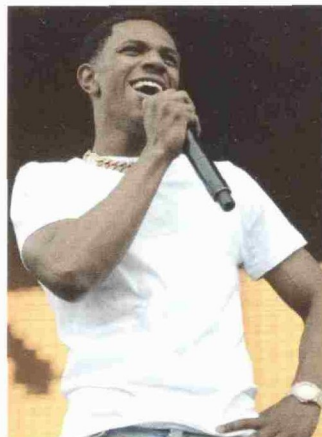

YOU'LL STAY IN OUR HEARTS

THE QUEEN OF SOUL, winner of 18 Grammy Awards and artist behind 20 No. 1 singles on the R&B chart, Aretha Franklin passed away on Aug. 16, 2018. More than 40 musicians and celebrities honored her life at a free concert in Detroit, Michigan, the day before her funeral. Pink Cadillacs lined the street outside Greater Grace Church as speakers and performers, including former President Clinton, gathered for her funeral.

READY TO BOOGIE at the Soundset Music Festival, A Boogie Wit Da Hoodie performs in Falcon Heights, Minnesota. His album, "Hoodie SZN," topped the U.S. album chart with a record low physical copies sold, highlighting the music industry's increasing streaming dependence.

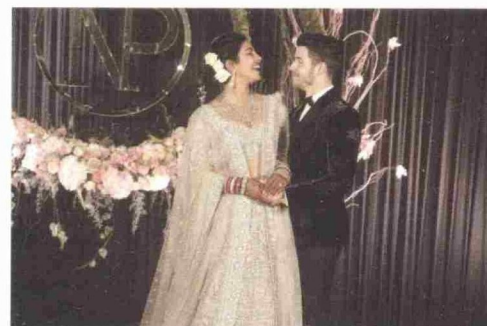

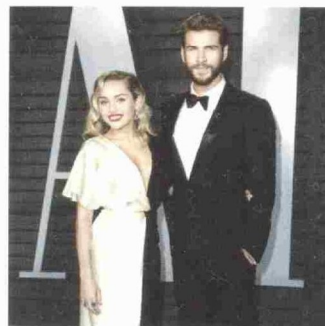

AS HE CELEBRATES A YEAR OF SUCCESS, Childish Gambino belts a song at Lovebox Festival in London. Though he wasn't at the Grammys to accept the award, Gambino became the first artist to win record of the year and song of the year for a hip-hop song. He released "This is America" to wide acclaim while performing on "Saturday Night Live" on May 5, 2018. IN FULL COSTUME, Cardi B performs at the 61st Grammy Awards on Feb. 10, 2019. Her 2018 album, "Invasion of Privacy," set off a season of firsts for the star. Among her long list of awards, she became the first solo female artist to win the Grammy Award for best rap album.

WITH A SMILE, Drake accepts his Grammy for best rap song for "God's Plan." Released on June 29, 2018, Drake's double album, "Scorpion" boasted seven Billboard Hot 100 singles, surpassing The Beatles' record-holding five singles from one album.

NOTABLE NUPTIALS

ARRIVING IN STYLE, Miley Cyrus and Liam Hemsworth pose at the 2018 Vanity Fair Oscar Party on March 4, 2018. After a decade of on-and-off-again dating, the pair tied the knot in a surprise ceremony in their living room in late December.

READY TO CELEBRATE, Priyanka Chopra and Nick Jonas take a moment during their wedding ceremonies. The pair invited friends and family to celebrate their Hindu and Western wedding ceremonies at the Taj Umaid Bhawan Palace in Jodhpur, India from Nov. 29 through Dec. 3.

ALL ARIANA, ALL DAY

MID HAIR FLIP, Ariana Grande performs at Banc of California Stadium on June 2, 2018.

Fresh off a breakup with Pete Davidson, Grande nearly broke the internet with her music video for "thank u, next." The star reenacted scenes from early-2000s rom coms including "Bring it On" and "Legally Blonde." Her album, of the same name, released on Feb. 8, 2019.

TONY TUNES

ON WEDNESDAYS, we get Tony nominations. The cast of "Mean Girls" celebrates opening night on April 9, 2018. The show was nominated for 12 Tony awards on May 1, 2018.

PLAYING THE UKULELE, Ethan Slater, dressed as SpongeBob SquarePants, joins hosts Sara Bareilles and Josh Groban on stage at the Tony Awards on June 10, 2018, where "The SpongeBob Musical" was nominated for 12 Tonys and won for best scenic design of a musical.

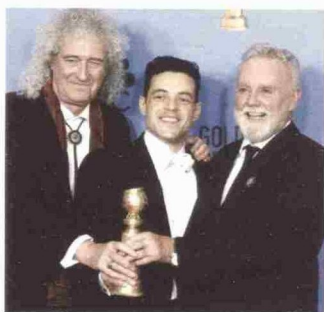

MONUMENTAL MAP

SEEN FOR THE FIRST TIME IN 50 YEARS, one of the most famous maps in children's literature sold for $600,000 at an auction. The map of Hundred Acre Wood appeared at the beginning of A.A. Milne's "Winnie-the-Pooh." As Eeyore would say, "Thanks for noticin' me."

EGOTS HONORED

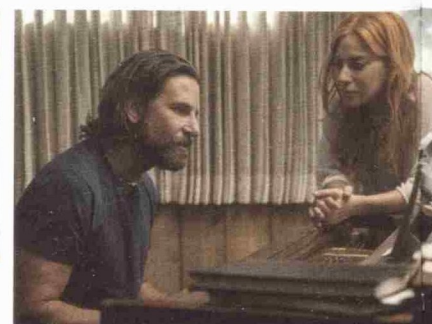

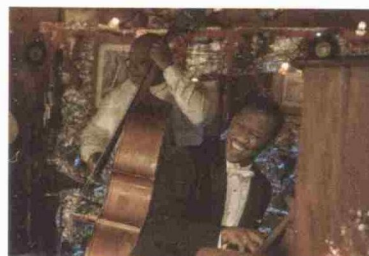

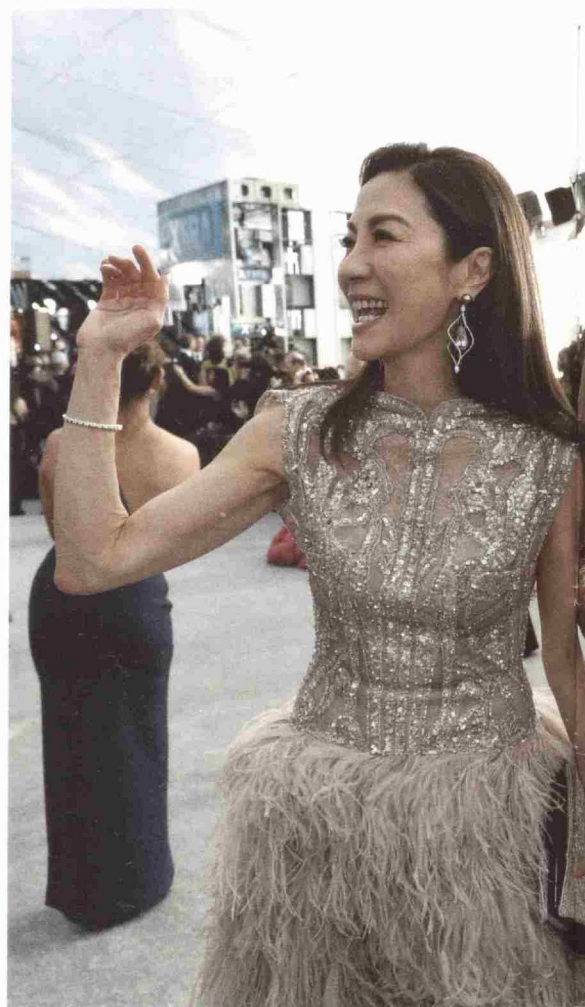

WITH THEIR EMMY AWARDS for "Jesus Christ Superstar Live in Concert," Andrew Lloyd Webber, John Legend and Tim Rice are the newest EGOTs — people who have won an Emmy, Grammy, Oscar and Tony Award. EMMY HELD CLOSE, Rachel Brosnahan celebrates her award for lead actress in a comedy series. "The Marvelous Mrs. Maisel" took home four awards.
